My art reps of many years at ComicArtHouse no longer represent me. So should you be interested in knowing what original art I have available, please simply email me at dmralmond@gmail.com

I have been able to post at least a list of available art below. When time allows I'll set up pages with the images. A work in progress..... (UPDATE: before that happened I sold almost everything on my show tours 2017-2018...all that's left is what's not crossed out below and if you need the scans for them please simply email me at the address above. Thanks! ~B)
